

Eastern Sierra Recreation Collaborative (ESRC)
Gateway Communities - Agenda
5:30 pm to 8:30 pm
October 28, 2014 Big Pine Town Hall
October 30, 2014 June Lake Community Center

- 1. Welcome – Why We Are here
- 2. Overview of the Inyo National Forest Management Plan Revision Process
  - The USFS 2012 Planning Rule, Required Elements, Framework for Sustainable Recreation
- 3. The Role of the ESRC
  - The “Recreation Lens” – The ESRC Recreation Values, Principles, and Guidelines
    - Recreation Approaches to Management and Maintenance of INF Lands
  - Schedule, Website, Approach - <http://mltpa.org/advocacy/esrc-public-meeting-information/>
  - Tuesday, October 14 - Bishop - Cerro Coso Community College
    - "Kickoff Meeting" – Regional Recreation Values, Principles, and Guidelines
  - Tuesday, October 28 – Big Pine - Big Pine Town Hall
    - Southern Gateway Communities Meeting (5:30 - 8:30)
  - Thursday, October 30 – June Lake – June Lake Community Center
    - Northern Gateway Communities Meeting (5:30 - 8:30)
  - Wednesday, November 12 - Bishop - Cerro Coso Community College
    - Drafting a Recreation Strategy (5:30 - 8:30)
- 4. Recreation Access in Inyo National Forest
  - Gateway Community Visual Guides in Map Format: How to Review and Provide Input
  - Public Input:
    - What is Working and Should be Continued? (KEEP)
    - What is Missing or Needs Improvement? (IMPROVE)
    - What Needs to Stop or Change? (CHANGE)
- 5. Questions for Public Discussion:
  - How to foster a symbiotic relationship between INF recreation use and conservation?
  - What issues do you experience as a result of multiple uses of INF resources?
    - If issues exist, what ideas do you have for addressing them from a recreation management and maintenance perspective?
- 6. Wrap Up and Next Steps